

artists for a day field trip registration form

The Target Artists for a Day program brings students into the Contemporary Arts Center to learn from working New Orleans artists. This field trip provides students with an opportunity to explore the creative process and experience contemporary arts. The interdisciplinary workshops are designed to align arts activities with core learning in math, language, science and social studies. If you have specific curricular requests, please let us know at least three weeks in advance to give our teachers time to adapt their lesson plans.

- Grades 1–12
- Groups of 40–60
- $7.00 per student
- No charge for chaperones
- Arrive at 9:30 am
- Activities begin at 10:00 am
- Field trip ends at 1:00 pm
- Students should bring bag lunch
